

FISCAL NOTE

SB 3133 - HB 3112

February 19, 2004

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires that a court, when considering child support obligations, take into account all children of the responsible parent, including those not involved in the order, and treat all children equally when ordering child support.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Exceeds $100,000/One-Time

Other Fiscal Impact - Increase Federal Expenditures - Exceeds $200,000/One-Time

Estimate assumes the bill will require changes in the computer system operated by the Department of Human Services to administer the mandatory child support system. The amount cannot be reasonably determined but is estimated to exceed $300,000.
